[From the Gold Hill News of last evening.]

CHICAGO, September 15.—Mr. Secretary Seward was dangerously ill last night and remains at Harrisburg.

The Baltimore City Council last evening refused to tender the hospitalities of the city to President Johnson, or participate in his reception this morning, on the ground that he is on a political stumping tour.

WASHINGTON, September 15.—Secretary McClellan has directed David A. Wells, Commissioner of the Federal Revenue, to prepare a draft form new tariff, to be submitted to Congress next Winter, with all information pertaining to the workings of the present law. Mr. Wells therefore at an early day will open an office in New York City, to consult the convenience of the people.

The returns received at the General Land Office from various district land offices in the new States and Territories exhibit a rapid increase in the public lands, and entries for settlement under the Homestead Law. These show that the tide is setting Westward, and more strongly than ever.

The National Republican Committee propose re-reading the speeches made by the President on the excursion, as a campaign document. They contain, it is said, the most remarkable and startling declarations of "policy" ever uttered by a President.

St. Louis, September 15.—The cholera has ceased to be an epidemic, in fact but five cases were reported in the twenty-four hours, ending noon to-day. The Mayor and Board of Health have issued a proclamation declaring that the cholera, as an epidemic, is at an end, and business is improving.

CHICAGO, September 15.—Thirteen lives were lost by the fall of the bridge at Jefferson, Penn., yesterday, and nearly two hundred persons were wounded—some of them seriously that they cannot recover.

The St. Paul (Min.) Press says: It is not generally known that the reporters are obliged to remodel the grammar of President Johnson's speeches before they are presented to the public. Thus in his recent speech to the Philadelphia Convention Committee, he used the following language:

"Because and others have proper to appeal to the patriotism and republican feeling of the country I have been denounced, &c."

SHERMAN REPUDIATES "MY POLICY." An announcement by the Missouri Blair Conservatives that Lieutenant General Sherman would speak at a mass meeting announced by them, has called forth a letter from the General, in which he denies having consented to take part in any such affair. The same parties applied to the authorities at Washington for artillery to be used in firing a salute, and the matter was referred to Lieutenant General Sherman, who referred it back to Secretary Stanton.
